

How to sort waste in Riga?

Find out more about waste sorting and management at: riga.lv/lv/atkritumi

Yes

✓ Plastic, paper, metal packaging without product residues

Plastic bottles

Plastic bags, film packaging

Packaging of frozen products

Packaging of cosmetics and household chemicals

Packaging of dairy products

Egg packaging

Mesh packaging

Packages of crisps and sweets

Bread packaging

Packaging of meat and other foodstuffs

Paper bags

Newspapers, magazines

Office paper

Books

Paper and cardboard packaging

Beverage cartons

Drink cans

Food tin packaging

Tins

Caps and lids

✓ Household kitchen and garden waste

Fruits, vegetables and their residues—peels, piths, pits, etc.

Meat, fish, products and residues

Cereals and cereal-based products

Eggs and eggshells

Coffee and tea grounds without bags and filters

Cheese, cottage cheese, and other solid dairy products

Bread and baked products

Garden waste, house plants and small tree branches up to 2cm in diameter and 50 cm in length

Plants and their roots, weeds, herbage and leaves

✓ Glass packaging without product residues

Jars

Bottles

No

✗ Household and disposable goods, paper products and metal items

Hair dye and other paint tubes

Toys and other plastic household articles

Expanded polystyrene packaging

Disposable dishes and cutlery

Paper towels and napkins

Finely shredded paper

Greasy, dirty or wet paper

Laminated paper, gift bags

Foil materials

Electronic cells and batteries

Keys, knives, screws, etc.

✗ Liquids, large branches, agricultural and pet waste

Soups, sauces, oils, marinades, compotes

Plastic bags and packaging, BIO films and flower pots

Paper and plastic dishes, egg packaging

Pet litter and faeces

Thuyas and big branches, stumps (diameter > 2 cm, length > 50 cm)

Stones, soil, non-recyclable garden materials

Ashes, barbecue coal and cigarette butts

Conventional and organic nappies, underpads, personal hygiene products

Agricultural residues, hay, straw, manure

✗ Other glassware

Glass household items

Ceramic dishes and bottles

Car glass

Bulb glass

Crystal dishes and items

Flat glass—windows, mirrors, photo frame glass